CONSULTING

Fall 2018-Spring 2019 Transforming the Local Media News Landscape
As a consulting partner with the data science organization 99 Antennas, Charlton D. McIlwain and I are constructing the methodological approach and will assist with data analysis for local media coverage of candidates during the 2018 elections. The project is in response to a Request for Proposals by Color of Change, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to racial justice.

2000-2018 Faculty Member, Junior State of America
Junior State of America (JSA) is a non-partisan organization run by high school students and backed 2012- by a not-for-profit foundation that seeks to promote participatory democracy (www.jsa.org).

2005-2010; 2012-2018 Instructor, JSA Preparation Program
Provide preparatory instruction for one week to students who were selected to attend JSA Summer Schools at Georgetown, Northwestern, Princeton, Stanford or Yale. In summers of 2010, 2012, 2013-2018, I worked with the students on site at Princeton for a week prior to the start of summer school. In prior years, the course was offered on island in Palau (2005; 2007-2009) and Guam (2006). This work was funded by the United States Department of the Interior, Office of Insular Affairs.

2012-2013 Recruiter, JSA Summer Schools, U.S. Island Territories and Palau
I visited the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) for one week each March to communicate with prospective students, parents, teachers and counselors, as well as local media, about summer school opportunities (including funding) through JSA. This work was funded by the United States Department of the Interior, Office of Insular Affairs.

2000-2010 Instructor, JSA Summer School, Princeton University, Princeton, NJ
Taught the American Presidency (2000), American Government (2001 and 2002), Political Communication (2003, 2005-2007, 2009-10), and Campaigns and Elections (2004, 2008) to advanced high school students for one month. Evaluated students' performances in "congressional workshops" (2000-2009) and delivered commencement addresses (2000, 2002, 2004).

2004; 2008; 2012 Instructor, JSA National Symposium at the National Party Conventions
Provided academic instruction and helped to coordinate student activities at the Democratic National Conventions (2004, 2008 and 20012) and the Republican National Convention (2012). In 2008, coordinated and directed the Junior Correspondents Program at the DNC. In 2012, co-coordinated (with Charlton D. McIlwain) the Junior Correspondents Program at the RNC and DNC.

2011-2014 The Slants (U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Appeal)
With Charlton D. McIlwain (New York University), provided pro bono consultation, created survey, and analyzed survey responses for formal report in support of Asian-American rock band's appeal of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office's refusal to extend trademark protection for the band's name because of ethnic/racial insensitivity.

1997-2000; 2004-2005 Faculty Consultant (Reader), Advanced Placement U.S. Government and Politics, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey
Graded Advanced Placement essay exams during a one-week session each June.
