The Course (GLS 160-D2: Study Abroad in France)

This course is designed to bring students into direct contact with a number of sites in France that represent key moments, events or eras of French history. This kind of experiential knowledge is a critical form of interaction with our world. The knowledge we gain can then be used to consider how the past has shaped and continues to shape today's French culture. Our study will be based on readings and site visits, some of which the students themselves (you!) will set up.

Enrollment Instructions

To enroll in GLS 160-D2, Study Abroad in France, students are required to:

- Meet with the faculty leader(s).
- Confer with their academic advisors.

- Bring the consent form to the Center for Global Education, Abe House, 48 E. Jefferson Ave., and fill out a brief application.
