Religious Studies, B.A.

In North Central's religious studies program you'll examine the world's major religions and consider their global influence. Your exploration of some of life's most challenging questions will lead you to the fields of philosophy, history, psychology, sociology, ethics and ministry. You'll better understand your neighbors—whether they live next door or around the world—so you'll be better prepared to teach, serve others, minister in your faith tradition or pursue any other vocation you choose.
