In pursuit of these goals, and to ensure compliance with local, state and federal civil rights laws and regulations, the College will not tolerate acts of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct and/or retaliation as such behavior seriously undermines the College's effectiveness as an educational institution and a workplace that values equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Each member of the North Central College community also shares a common responsibility to maintain an environment free from discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct and retaliation.

The Title IX and Student Accessibility Coordinator has primary responsibility for enforcement of this policy, specifically for coordinating efforts related to investigation, resolution, and implementation of corrective measures and monitoring to stop, remediate, and prevent discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct and/or retaliation prohibited under this policy.

Getting Help

The following are suggested options after experiencing sexual misconduct or interpersonal violence. These options are not listed in a stepwise order so some options may be pursued and not others.

1. Call 911

If you are in immediate danger, call 911 for assistance from local law enforcement.

2. Call Campus Safety or Law Enforcement

If you are on campus and have continued safety concerns contact:

- Campus Safety at 630-637-5911
- Naperville Police Non-Emergency at 630-420-6666 (to make a police report)
- Area Hall Director On Call at 630-816-5298 (for students living in campus housing)

3. Call a Friend

Contact a friend, family member or support person, tell them what happened and have them come to your location.

Evidence Preservation

Preserving evidence is important to assist in criminal prosecution, an investigation, and/or obtaining civil orders of protection or no contact orders, even if you are undecided about what courses of action you want to pursue.

- If possible, secure the room or location where the assault occurred without disturbing anything.
- Preserve all physical evidence and take pictures or screen shots.
- It is best not to bathe, shower, urinate, douche or use a toothbrush. Do not wash or discard any articles of clothing worn during the sexual assault, however, evidence can still be obtained even if you shower or wash.

- If you suspect a rape drug has been used, do not urinate and ask the health care provider to take a urine sample immediately.

Seek Medical Attention

Getting medical attention is important for addressing the physical consequences of any type of sexual violence or physical assault, even if you do not wish to seek criminal prosecution. In cases of sexual assault, seeking medical attention within 24 hours of a sexual assault is the most ideal for medical and prophylactic treatment.

During hearings, Advisors are responsible for conducting live cross examinations of the parties and witnesses.

The College cannot guarantee equal Advisory rights, meaning that if one party selects an Advisor who is an attorney, but the other party does not or cannot afford an attorney, the College is not obligated to provide an attorney.

It is recommended that Advisors request a pre-interview meeting with the administrative officials conducting interviews/meetings in advance of these interviews or meetings. This pre-meeting allows Advisors to clarify and understand their role and College's policies and procedures.

Campus Options

Supportive Measures

Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the parties.

The Title IX and Student Accessibility Coordinator promptly makes supportive measures available to the parties upon receiving notice or a complaint.

Supportive measures include, but are not limited to:

- Academic support, extensions of deadlines, excused absences, remote access, negotiating incompletes, or other course/program-related adjustments
- Referral to campus advocacy, counseling, medical, and/or other healthcare services
- Altering campus housing assignment(s) and/or work arrangements
- Providing campus safety escorts
- Providing transportation accommodations
- College No Contact Order (an order that an individual refrain from direct/indirect contact with another person[s])
- College No Trespass Order (restrictions on access to campus or areas of campus)

Informal Actions

It is important for the College to have the opportunity to stop the behaviors that are being experienced before a hostile environment is created. In many cases, informal actions can effectively stop the behavior or actions.

Informal actions include but are not limited to:

- Providing feedback about the impact of the reported behavior through the appropriate office and campus official.
- Notice Meeting in which the allegations and potential policy violations are reviewed with the Respondent.
- The matter is resolved through the provision of supportive measures to remedy the situation.

Filing a Formal Complaint

Any member of the College community who wishes to file a formal complaint regarding an incident of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct or retaliation as defined by this policy should first bring this matter to the Title IX and Student Accessibility Coordinator.

Formal complaints must be made in writing and signed by the Complainant or the Title IX and Student Accessibility Coordinator.

Under no circumstances is an impacted individual required to report to the person who is the alleged reason for the allegation.

Restorative Resolution Conferences

A Restorative Resolution Conference uses structured dialogue between a harmed party and the party who caused harm in order to identify actions that can be taken to repair harm and rebuild trust for the harmed party and community.

Formal Grievance Processes

The Formal Grievance Process involves an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence obtained, including evidence which supports and does not support that the Respondent engaged in a policy violation.

The College operates with the presumption that the Respondent is not responsible for the reported misconduct unless and until the Respondent is determined to be responsible for a policy violation by the applicable standard of proof of preponderance of evidence through the grievance process.

Title IX Formal Grievance Process

To pursue the Title IX formal grievance process, the following parameters must be met:

1. The alleged conduct in the formal complaint constitutes sexual harassment as defined by the 2020 Title IX regulations
2. The conduct occurred in an educational program or activity controlled by the College
3. The College has jurisdiction over the Respondent and Complainant
4. The conduct occurred in the United States
5. The Complainant is participating in or attempting to participate in the educational program or activity of the College

Discrimination and other Discriminatory Harassment Process

Any complaint of sexual misconduct that does not fall within the scope of Title IX can be pursued through the non-Title IX sexual misconduct process. This includes sexual harassment that is severe or pervasive.

Other qualifiers for non-Title IX processes include but are not limited to:

- Discriminatory harassment on the basis of protected class other than sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and/or gender expression that occurred off-campus.

- Sexual misconduct that occurs off-campus between members of the College community
- Sexual misconduct by a College community member with an individual not affiliated with the College

Steps in the Title IX Formal Grievance Process:

1. Submit a formal written complaint
2. The Title IX Office will evaluate each complaint received and determine if the complaint falls under Title IX. Complaints not under Title IX's jurisdiction will be handled under the Discrimination and Other Discriminatory Harassment Process (see next page)
3. Investigation
4. Parties Review Report
5. Hearing
6. Notice of Outcome
