Theatre, Acting Track, B.A.

You'll study with faculty who include accomplished actors and dramaturgs working in major Chicago venues who will share their expertise with you. And because North Central has huge opportunities but small classes, you'll have plenty of chances to act, sing and dance; direct shows; and even write and produce your own plays and musicals. Or you can choose to concentrate your studies in directing, dramaturgy, community engagement, and radical theatre practice. Whether you want to shine onstage or shape what happens in production, North Central is the place to be.
