*Opportunities for internships in various fields

"Education, travel, and discovering new passions are only headlines of my time abroad. I sharpened my passion for the German language, naturally, but to me Heidelberg was so much more. Through an apprenticeship under a master blacksmith I learned the value of loving your work. Dramatic differences in social norms taught me different ways to view the everyday, and a time-focused way of doing things built a new respect for being organized."

Organizational Communication major,
Joshua Beck, studied at Universität Heidelberg in Germany during fall 2016.
