Cardinal Destination Course Abroad
(May Term)

JAPAN

The Intersection of Tradition and Modernity

CARD 261-3

Course Description

TENTATIVE DATES

May 5-20, 2020

Led by Prof. Brian Hoffert & Prof. Fukumi Matsubara

This course will explore the relationship between Japan's past and present by focusing on the various ways that its people have embraced modernity while preserving important aspects of traditional culture. After exploring this theme in the classroom, we will experience the synthesis of traditional and modern culture by visiting cultural sites in and around Tokyo, Nagoya, Osaka, Kyoto, and the Kii Peninsula.

Itinerary Highlights

- Explore the foundations of traditional Japanese culture in Kyoto
- Visit sites that exemplify the transition from tradition to modernity, such as the Edo-Tokyo Museum and Toyota Techno Museum
- Experience contemporary culture through Japanese food, anime, manga, technology and a home stay

CARDINAL DESTINATION COURSE ABROAD (MAY TERM)

A Cardinal Destination Course Abroad (CDCA) is a short-term, faculty-led, group international travel course that takes place in May Term and has a linked prerequisite course in the preceding Spring Semester.

ENROLLMENT STEPS (To participate in a CDCA, you must enroll in and successfully complete its prerequisite course in Spring Semester 2020.)

- Meet with your academic advisor to understand how enrollment in the CDCA and linked prerequisite Spring Semester course will affect your academic plan or Individualized Transition Plan (ITP).
- Register ON MERLIN for the spring semester course, CARD 260-1 (2 credits).
- Register ON MERLIN for the linked CDCA, CARD 261-3, (1 credit).
 - April 22, 2019: Priority Registration for 2019-2020 academic year begins.
 - September 15, 2019: Enrollment for CDCA closes (or before, if course capacity is met).
- If you are not in a spring semester linked course, you must have instructor consent to enroll in the CDCA.

CENTER FOR GLOBAL EDUCATION (CGE) REGISTRATION

- September 16, 2019: Students enrolled in a CDCA will begin a registration process through the Center for Global Education.
- December 1, 2019: Proof of a valid passport is due. (Current passports must be valid through November 2020 for May term travel, six (6) months past your return travel date.)

- If you withdraw from the linked spring semester course, you will be withdrawn from the CDCA and you will be responsible for any associated fees (airline or program fees) as outlined in the Cancellation and Refund Policy above.
- If you fail the linked spring semester course, you will be withdrawn from the CDCA and responsible for any associated fees (airline or program fees) as outlined in the Cancellation and Refund Policy above.
- Successful completion of the spring semester linked course is REQUIRED for participation in the May Term international travel section.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

- North Central College provides all students enrolled in a CDCA a primary emergency medical insurance policy for the course dates abroad.
- Every student participant is required to abide by the College policies as outlined in the North Central College Student Handbook and by the expectations outlined in the course syllabus. If, in the judgement of a faculty/staff leader, a student has violated the course expectations or College policy as stated in the Student Handbook, the student may be sent home at his/her own expense. In such circumstances, a student's parents may also be notified and additional disciplinary action may be taken by the College upon the student's return to the United States.
- All CDCA enrolled students will be required to attend a pre-departure information session.
