Completion of this process is based upon admission into SGPS graduate degree programs. The NACC partnership rate is not retroactive and will be applied in the academic term following SGPS's confirmation of the employee's status as an eligible chamber member. Enrolled participants who experience a change in their employment status are eligible to receive the tuition discount so long as they remain continuously enrolled for each consecutive term. It is the responsibility of the employee to notify SGPS of any employment or eligibility changes. Tuition discounts cannot be combined as there are no dual discounts.
