WHY CHOOSE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY HOUSING?

By opting to reside in International Community Housing, you will be a part of a living-learning community that will encourage ambitious goal-setting and provide opportunities to build cross-cultural relationships with students who have shown interest in global perspectives. This community will also promote language learning, explore personal and cultural identities, and help you navigate cultural differences.

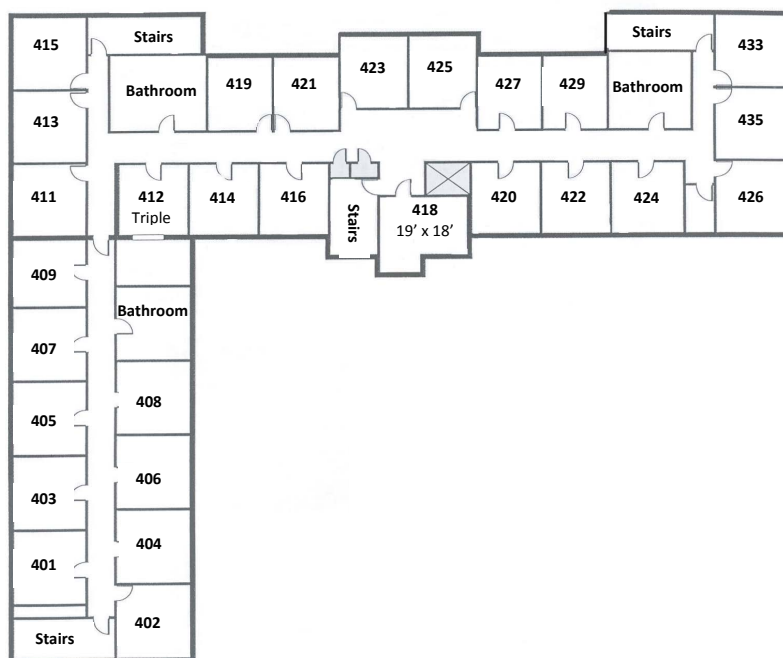

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF LIVING IN INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY HOUSING?

By living in International Community Housing, you will:

- Develop transformational relationships through meaningful interactions with students, faculty and staff who will help guide your education through a global perspectives lens
- Immerse yourself in a global community housing students from all around the world
- Engage in customized programming through the Center for Global Education
- Explore foreign languages
- Be assigned a roommate who is both excited to have an international roommate, as well as shares similar interests with you

HOW IS THE COMMUNITY FLOOR ARRANGED?

The International Living and Learning Community is located on the fourth floor of Patterson Hall. Two Resident Assistants (RA) will provide guidance and support for all floor members. Additional leadership will be provided by North Central's Center for Global Education and faculty members teaching the international first-year seminar course. All North Central College policies apply to international student housing participants. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to remove any individuals who violate College policy.

WHAT ARE MY NEXT STEPS?

1. Fill out the international roommate questionnaire in this application.
2. Complete and submit this application, either electronically or in print, no later than noon on April 1, 2021. Contact information is provided on page one.
3. The Center for Global Education will notify you of your new housing assignment in early July.
4. Contact your new American roommate and get to know them!
