CARD*361*1

Course Description

Acting Across Cultures is to study the interrelationship between theatre and culture; how theatre-making shapes culture. In May 2022 we will travel together to London and Paris where we'll juxtapose the classical acting techniques of The Globe with the contemporary acting techniques of Punchdrunk and Battersea; in Paris we'll dance the Can Can, and learn French theatre styles. What might we learn about theatre styles as embodied in performance? Let's play and see what happens!

Itinerary Highlights
