Course Description

Led by Prof. Hale Ekinici &
Prof. David Cordero

This course is an exploration of Mexico City's vibrant art and design scene, looking at both historic and contemporary practices through a decolonial lens. Students will visit historic, cultural sites as well as local, grassroots arts organizations to gain an understanding of the visual arts in this global metropolitan city. Students will be introduced to ways of seeing art and architecture, local approaches to design, and visual culture. Through observation, journaling/sketching, listening, reading, and interaction, students will reflect on the effect of visual culture.

Itinerary Highlights

- Visit Art museums, galleries, parks, and markets around Mexico City
- Attend traditional Ballet Folklórico performance
- Visit Aztec Pyramids and archaeological sites
- Connect with local artists and designers

CARDINAL DESTINATION COURSE ABROAD (MAY TERM)

A Cardinal Destination Course Abroad (CDCA) is a short-term, faculty-led, group international travel course that takes place in May Term and has a linked prerequisite course in the preceding spring semester.

ENROLLMENT STEPS (To participate in a CDCA, you must enroll in and successfully complete its prerequisite course.)

1. Contact your academic advisor to understand how enrollment in the CDCA and linked prerequisite spring semester course will affect your academic plan.
2. Register ON MERLIN for the linked spring semester course, CARD*298*OA1 (0 credits).
3. Register ON MERLIN for the May Term course abroad (summer session), CARD*261*4 (1 credit).

Enrollment Deadline: November 1, 2021 (or before, if course capacity is met).

CENTER FOR GLOBAL EDUCATION (CGE) REGISTRATION

- November 1, 2021: Students enrolled in a CDCA will begin the registration process, be charged a non-refundable $35 registration fee, and pay the non-refundable $500 program fee deposit, through the Center for Global Education.
- January 15, 2022: Proof of a valid passport is due. (Current passports must be valid through November 2022 for May term travel, six (6) months past your return travel date.)

CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY

- Refund schedules for airfare depend on individual airlines; faculty leaders will inform all participants of the relevant deadlines and policies.
- If an enrolled student withdraws from the CDCA before March 1, 2022, then 50% of the remaining balance of the program fee will be billed to the student account if costs have been incurred by the College.
- If an enrolled student withdraws from the CDCA after March 1, 2022, then 100% of the program fee is forfeited.
- Withdrawing from a CDCA does not withdraw you from the linked spring semester course.
- If you withdraw from the linked spring semester course, you will be withdrawn from the CDCA and you will be responsible for any associated fees (airline or program fees) as outlined in the Cancellation and Refund Policy above.
- If you fail the linked spring semester course, you will be withdrawn from the CDCA and responsible for any associated fees (airline or program fees) as outlined in the Cancellation and Refund Policy above.
- Successful completion of the spring semester linked course is REQUIRED for participation in the May Term international travel section.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

- North Central College provides all students enrolled in a CDCA a primary emergency medical insurance policy for the course dates abroad.
- Every student participant is required to abide by the College policies as outlined in the North Central College Student Handbook and by the expectations outlined in the course syllabus. If, in the judgement of a faculty/staff leader, a student has violated the course expectations or College policy as stated in the Student Handbook, the student may be sent home at his/her own expense. In such circumstances, a student's parents may also be notified and additional disciplinary action may be taken by the College upon the student's return to the United States.
- All CDCA enrolled students will be required to attend a pre-departure information session.
