Course Description:

This course gives students a practical understanding of the criminal justice systems in England and the U.S. We will examine the history of the U.S. and English criminal justice systems, followed by students making comparisons between the modern police, courts, and correctional systems in both countries. Participants will have direct contact with practitioners in the U.S. and England--including hands-on tours and observations of key criminal justice institutions--where similarities and differences between the two systems will "come to life."

Enrollment Steps:

To participate in a Cardinal Destination Course Abroad (CDCA), you must enroll in and successfully complete its prerequisite work.
