Course Description:

This program is your gateway to England and The Netherlands, where you'll delve into comparative criminal justice systems and social justice. The core of this program is to equip you with a global understanding of criminal justice, from both a comparative and international viewpoint. While most criminal justice courses are centered on the American justice system, we believe it's equally crucial for you to explore other historical and cultural perspectives on crime and justice. In this program, you'll not only learn about the legal and justice systems in England and The Netherlands but also gain a broader perspective by comparing them to the American systems.
