TRAUMA CERTIFICATE APPLICATION CONTINUED

Have you ever been accused or charged with violating a code of student conduct or institutional policy, or been suspended, placed on probation, dismissed, or expelled from any high school or college? ☐ Yes ☐ No
Have you ever been arrested, indicted or convicted of anything other than a minor traffic violation? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Note that you are not required to answer "yes" to these questions, or provide an explanation, if the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, destroyed, erased, impounded, or otherwise required by law or ordered by a court to be kept confidential.

Applicants reporting information pertaining to prior institutional suspensions and or criminal backgrounds are never automatically barred from admission to North Central College. Applicants must respond accurately to these questions and may be contacted for more information. Any additional information will be collected and assessed by the School of Graduate and Professional Studies, the Office of Student Affairs, and/or, in cases where information may indicate a risk to the campus community, the College's Behavior Intervention Team. This review happens separately from the academic review and prior to the final admission decision. At all times, as an applicant or a student, you are required to notify North Central College's Office of Student Affairs of any charge, indictment, or conviction involving a felony, or act that would be a felony if committed by an adult. Failure to provide such notification may result in student disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion from North Central College.

This application must be signed by the applicant and is not valid if information is withheld or misinformation given. North Central College reserves the right to verify the information contained in this application by contacting prior educational institutions. Admission and credit earned by an invalid application will be canceled. If admitted, the applicant agrees to comply with all rules and regulations of the College.
